Alpataco, Pinot Noir, 2018

Patagonia, Argentina

From Neuquen in Argentina, this outstanding wine comes from low altitude (for Argentina) and is on the same latitude as New Zealand, so no coincidence that it specialises in Pinot Noir! This relatively new wine making region is producing some outstanding wines and is making a name for itself due to Dinosaur fossils being found in the vineyards – with a new species being discovered at the Familia Schroeder vineyard!

Tasting Notes

Light bodied, with plenty of crunchy red fruits and a real refreshing feel to the wine. We recommend trying this slightly chilled, which lifts the fruit aromas and reduces any alcohol taste – making it worryingly easy to drink! There's also some subtle hints of oak, bringing a nice sweetness to the fruit flavours and adding a little smokey element to add some depth and complexity.

Black Label, Malbec 2017

Mendoza, Argentina

The top wine from our very own, exclusive collaboration with Susana Balbo. The Black Label Malbec is a barrel selection – created by tasting each barrel from this parcel and picking the best 10% – creating our 'Black Label' blend. The first 20% is aged in new French oak – which gives this wine structure and complexity, however to retain the freshness and black forest fruits, we age the rest of the wine in 2nd used oak.

Tasting Notes

Well structured, with firm yet silky tannins. The influence of oak is apparent, with some back notes of mocha and vanilla – however the main driving force is sticky, black forest fruits and purple flowers.

Faith, Shiraz 2017

Barossa Valley, Australia

This wine is from Barossa Valley, the home of big, rich and spicy Shiraz, with this example coming from a blend of small vineyard parcels from central and southern Barossa valley, grown in a terrior of rich loam soils over shale and red clay. The wine was matured in American and French oak for ten months before being blended and bottled.

Tasting Notes

The nose shows notes of dark cherry, hints of chocolate and spice; dark fruits follow on the palate entwined with pepper spice and a savoury finish with soft tannins.
